

Advocate Nandipha Ntsaluba BIO

- Author, Ihlubikazi Rooted and launched to the world from Tsomo , Tsojana from a 22 member Sibling Ntsaluba family/ Nkomo Clan with four fathers born with eight sisters whose footprint straddle on both sides of the KEI river in the Eastern Cape.
- UNISAN situated within the Mercantile Law Department, faculty of law, and school of business leadership alumni. Principal, deputy principal, and teacher of at least fourteen years imparting maths and education skills and competencies through the Adult Education Center she founded and an iconic comprehensive high school in the Eastern Cape region.
- Academically and experientially qualified professional having at least twelve qualifications in Education and Training, Science, Extractive Industries Law, International Law, International Trade Law, Intellectual Property Law, Airspace and Communication Law. The academic credentials consist of a minimum of twelve (12) qualifications and four Master's degrees in different fields (2LLMs, MED, MBL).
- Board member of the South African Females in Energy Efficiency interest group, affiliated with the South African Efficiency Energy Confederation (SAEEC).
- Member of the South African Association of Intellectual Property Law and Information Technology Teachers and Researchers (AIPLITL).
- She is an active member of the South African Public Procurement and SCM Collaboration Forum, representing at least 700 public procurement and SCM professionals from public and commercial sectors across the country.
- Professionally qualified in UCT/MIM specialised online mediation for legal practitioners.
- Member of the Africa Information, Communication, and Technology Alliance (AfICTA), Global Cyberlaw Forum, .The Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN) as well as participating in the Global Internet Governance Fora, continentally, regionally and domestically.
- She has participated with State Machinery and Governance as a member of ICTS, JCPS Clusters, Govt Planning, M&E Forum, Treaty Implementation Monitoring Committee, PAIA Coordinating Committee and GITOC.
- LLM graduate in IP and Cyberlaw with research on "Towards Policy and Legislation on Cybersecurity in South Africa."IRLI Certificate in Commercial Drafting. As a strategist within the Security Cluster has been involved in the development and consultation processes of the Cybercrime and Cybersecurity legislative developments.

- Experience in financial and programme accreditation due diligence for private education and training regulation, policy development, and public-private sector collaboration.
- Member of IODSA, SACE, NADEL, and Gauteng Association of Advocates (GSA).
- The NQF Framework, SAQA Policies, Further Education and Training Act, Skills Development Act, and founding documents for SETAs from Industry Training Boards. Together with DOL developed the career routing concept with the Department of Education for the Youth Development Programme.
- She developed the Private FET Institution Registration Regulations to establish government capability to regulate private FET provisions. She designed SA's private FET institution registration and accreditation system and legal tools for licencing Private FET/Private Colleges under Section 39(2) of the Constitution.
- She was a Director of Defence, Strategy, and Planning and acting Deputy Director General: Corporate Services of the South African Military Veterans mandate from 2005
- As a GITOC member and Deputy Chair of the National South African Coordinating Committee for PAIA Implementation, she received ICT governance experience in 2011. She developed the ICTS Cluster's data Governance Policy to ensure GDPR and POPIA compliance in creating and deploying the Military Veterans Data Management System and Department of Home Affairs verification of MV personal data.
- She has a proven and well-documented experience in future research, including SA Foresight 2020 and developing various Foresight Strategies and Outcomes Based Planning, Monitoring, and Evaluation Instruments to oversee compliance with Corporate Governance, PFMA, and delegated Legislation across organs of state.
- She is an experienced leader in developing engineering programmes for Mining Companies' technical vocational training programmes, including forward and backward tracer studies. To register as a private education supplier, one must have experience in corporate governance monitoring. Private education provider registration requires corporate governance monitoring experience.
- LLD Candidate at UP with a focus on Lawful Processing of Personal Information within the deployment of Drones in SA. Air Space Communication Law, Intellectual Property, Cyberlaw, POPIA and GDPR implementation imperatives from the Council of Europe Treaty, and online mediation. As part of the Africa Extractive Industry Strategy, she is advising on small-scale artisanal mining in South Africa.

- As part of the LLM in IP and Cyberlaw Program at UP, she helped redesign South Africa LLB programme to align with the original packaging of the NQF Qualification Structure. Participated in the development of SA Connect Policy, Electronic Communication Policies and Legislation, and Communications Policies and Legislation. She remains a results oriented mentor for young uniform members of the Military and Defence Force, Engineering students as for SMMEs registered with Innovation Hub: Maxum Smart Business Incubator from 2019 to 2021, pro bono
- She acquired expertise in managing in Evaluating Vocational Education and Training Programmes , civil-military relations and international business development, coordinating military and defence policy, profiling quotas with Chief procurement at National Treasury and DTI, to promote military veterans and dependents as designated groups in SA—.

The end //